Imagine what it would be like to lose your parents, not because of something you did, but because they can't or won't take care of you. CASA volunteers are appointed to watch over and advocate for these abused and neglected children. CASA volunteers are the voice for children, they advocate for children so they may ultimately live in safe, permanent homes. CASA volunteers are a constant presence in the lives of maltreated children and provide the judge presiding over the case with the unique perspective of an adult who is charged with only representing their best interests for the life of the child protection proceeding—up to two or three years of time. To find out more about becoming a CASA volunteer or supporting the work of our program through our annual raffle please contact us via phone or email at (208)746.3378 or email: casa2@cablone.net.
